ROSENDAL | R4 495 000

If you are looking for spacious and flowing living areas with limited garden and outside maintenance, then this house is for you. The crisp and clean look and feel will allow you to live and entertain with ease. The living areas consist of a large dining room which forms the focal point as you enter the home. It forms a link between the formal lounge, the informal lounge (with a fireplace) and the modern, sleek kitchen. The light, screeded floors create a feeling of continuity and space. The family room is connected to the covered deck via sliding doors. This covered entertainment area is enclosed with weather blinds, contains a built-in braai and overlooks the sparkling pool and outside entertainment area.
